“ Isadore Bolds Sr. was very loving and caring. I will miss him alot. I met him at the VA Hospital right after hurricane Katrina as we both relocated from New Orleans. We both stayed in Dallas for good. We became very close and helped each other during difficult times. I was able to share things with him that I couldn't share with most people that are not family. That's exactly what he became. I just wish I had more time with him. I will miss him and of course continue to think of him. When I received the message that he had passed I immediatly was really really sad. And God forgive me, I then started hoping that it was a sick joke because he would do things to get my attention if I was ever mad at him(never to that extreme). But I was hoping it was not true. I am praying for his son and the rest of his family. Love you Issy. Maia Adams
