

Ivori Nicole Churn-Chukwumerije

October 30, 2022

Ivori Nicole Churn-Chukwumerije was born on March 18, 1983 to Debbie Churn in Queens, NY. In her younger years, she was taken in by the Chukwumerije family where she lived in Nigeria. Later in life, she relocated to Baltimore, MD. before her final landing place in New Orleans, LA. Through her journey in life, she met lots of people who soon would become friends and then family through her open heart and spirit. Ivori was a true beacon in life. Her bright light of love and affection took over any room she entered. Ivori loved everyone and she had no shame in showing and telling it. She had no problem giving you the shirt off her back and her shoes if you needed those too. Family always came first for her and if you ever met her you were indeed treated and loved like family and she'd do whatever for you. Ivori's village was well taken care of. On October 30, 2022 she passed away unexpectedly to unknown causes. But her soul will live on through each and every person she came in contact with. We love you forever Ivori and you'll truly be missed. One of a kind.
