April 13, 2024

We come to you with heavy hearts to share the story of Jacqueline Louise Pons, a beloved member of our community, a dedicated soldier, a loving mother, a rock star in every sense, and a beacon of kindness and acceptance. Jacqueline's journey through life was one of resilience, passion, and unwavering love for others. As a proud member of the US Army, she served her country with honor and dedication, embodying the spirit of service and sacrifice. Her bravery and commitment inspired all who knew her. Beyond her military service, Jacqueline was a devoted mother to three beautiful children, showering them with love, guidance, and unwavering support. Her nurturing spirit extended beyond her own family, as she became a mother figure to her sisters and a confidant to her friends. Her home was always open, her heart always ready to embrace those in need. Jacqueline's adventurous spirit led her down many paths, including her role as a leader in a rock band, where she expressed herself through music and touched the lives of countless fans with her talent and passion. But perhaps Jacqueline's most enduring legacy lies in her unwavering dedication to community service and activism. Wherever there was a need, she was there, lending a helping hand, speaking out for justice, and spreading love and compassion without judgment. Tragically, Jacqueline's journey was cut short by a battle with cancer, a fight she bravely faced with grace and dignity until the very end.
