

Jacqueline M. Smith

September 12, 2024

Ms. Jacqueline M. Smith began the story of her life in Vaiden, Mississippi on February 12, 1958 to William Frazier and Margie Frazier. She was reared in a small town in Plaquemine, Louisiana.

She received her early education in the public schools in Louisiana, graduating from Plaquemine Senior High School. Soon after, she relocated to New Orleans, where she worked as a housekeeper at the Brent House Hotel. She loved spending her free time sitting on the porch watching the cars drive by, waving to her neighbors and playing Domino's with her twin sister, Jackie. Jacqueline also took pleasure in drinking a cold glass of wine while enjoying time talking to her daughter and grandchildren and watching Wheel of Fortune as the day rolled by.

Jacqueline's early morning routine consisted of reading her daily Bible scripture and drinking a tall glass of her famous sweet tea. She had this magnetic energy to her, she was the voice of the family; everyone was drawn to her spiritual magnetism.

Her favorite saying, "I can walk through muddy water and spot the dry land". That meant that God gave her knowledge, understanding and wisdom from above that he allowed to carry with belief.

sorrowing friends.

Jacqueline is preceded in death by her loving and devoted companion, James Jamison, parents, William and Margie Frazier; three sons, Markee Smith, Lennie Smith, and Nelson Smith; and siblings, Harold Frazier, Lynn Frazier and Eric Frazier.

Arrangements by D.W, Rhodes Funeral Home, 3933 Washington Ave. New Orleans, La 70125.
