“ I first met Jacque and his twin when we worked on Jeff Davis Pkwy for BellSouth. They were the cutest little people ever, polite, charming, friendly and very well behaved. That first impression paved the way for many more encounters. Jacque had never changed, he was our baby and we look forward to seeing him whenever the opportunity presented itself!!!
As the years passed he grew up to become a handsome, still mannerable young man who was like a nephew to me and gave the warmest smile and hugs. I will never forget him and all the accomplishments he achieved to make me as proud of him as his mother.
