“ *Loyce, Cindy and family, I am so sorry to hear the news of James passing. My prayer for you all is in the silent hours your minds are abundantly filled with many fond and happy memories that bring smiles and laughter. Pray for him and to him. He's in a loving place where he can do much more for you than when he was beside you.
My deepest sympathy, Brenda Maher Amato*

“ Loyce,

James was so fortunate to have a wife as devoted and caring as you were. He would want you to enjoy life with the freedom from so much responsibility and I hope you have not forgotten how. As the grieving becomes a distant memory, may you carry with you the good times you shared with him and shape a life that is a testimony to his wishes for your happiness.

Take care,
