“ I can only tell you Jimmie was a complete part of my life as much perhaps as mom and dad.as a child tgere was an elevator ride at Fisher Hdw that began our times together,a sign drawn in the wall glasses with eyes and a note 'if you dont see it ask Jimmie" our home passover seders building fixing cleaning standing with mom just doing things lioading the truck his expressions laughter stern corrections seeing him with Ellis and Richard all vivid memories speaking of my Jimmie just as you all love him there are Harris st juliens sharing gratefully your memories and feeling your loss.Isabel told meonce we ll never be apart Ill always live in your heart and speak to you from there.so it is with our Jimmie. I only hope god has him trackside for a few derbys so he can enjoy the afterlife as he was a joy to us.Forgive my rambling but its in my heart so much..love to you all God be with all of us now that tgeres a new foreman up there on the job.
