

James Veal Sr. and Anna Veal

May 20, 2020

James Veal, Sr. 11/13/33 - 04/15/20

Anna Veal 05/14/34 - 05/20/20

Married: Sept. 25, 1954

To this union 5 children were born, Ivy, James Jr, Arthur Lee, Michael, and Garry. After living in Orleans Parish for approx. 18 years the family moved to Jefferson Parish, residing in Avondale, LA. The family joined a missionary church where they learned the doctrine that included belief in Jesus as GOD.

M/M Veal began to search for truth after their daughter started studying with Jehovah's Witnesses. There were obstacles as Sister Veal belonged to and liked the choir. Bro. Veal was an usher. Being from a long line of Baptist, they thought this was all that was involved pure worship involved.

Once they started a serious study with one of the elders and his wife, they were learning new truths like God's name. This led to baptism on July 6, 1996, after about a year Bro Veal reached out and began his training as a ministerial servant.

Bro. and Sis. Veal enjoyed their newly found knowledge and spiritual education with many and various friends at the table witnessing at the various groceries and drug stores nearby. They loved the association and banquet

Jehovah provided until their deaths.

Due to the Government Social Distancing Guidelines, the family held a private service for Mr. James Veal and Mrs. Anna Veal.
