“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Death is the enemy of all mankind, yet when it touches us personally, it is at times difficult to receive the comfort we search for. In times like these I know I can find comfort in God's word. In John 5:28,29 He tells us " Do not be amazed at this, for the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." As the God and Father of tender mercies, He wants you to find comfort in Him through prayer (2 Cor 1:3).

“ Vickie,

I did not have the pleasure of meeting Janet; but I know that if she was anything like you the angels are rejoicing to have her with them in heaven. I know this is a difficult time for you and your family just lean on God and know he makes no mistakes. We here at AdvanceMed love you are here for you!

“ Gary and I are so sorry for your loss. Janet was a beautiful soul that God let us have the pleasure of meeting and living next to for many years. She will be missed by all who had the privilege of knowing her. She is in her eternal home with the Lord and I pray that everyone that loved her can take a little comfort in the promise that God made that we will all be reunited in Heaven someday. James if you need anything at all please let us know.

“ *Those we love don't go away,
They walk beside us every day.
Unseen, unheard, but always near,
Still loved, still missed and very dear.
For death leaves a heartache
No one can heal,
And love leaves a memory
No one can steal.*

My prayers are with you all, Janet, a beautiful flower, plucked from earth and now blooming in God's garden. May God comfort you in this time of sorrow. Praying for each of you. Karen Archie-Gregory, Janee Gregory, Nokomis Gregory, Jr.-North Carolina “ Words cannot express the heaviness in my heart as I mourn the loss of my loving cousin Janet. You fought a good fight and God saw you getting weary and called you home. I will forever hold onto my memories of our times together in Tunica during the summers of our childhood and at Alcorn State University. You were my cousin from the "BIG CITY." You will be missed. Rest in Peace dear cousin.
