

Jaquelyn Faye McMillan

March 22, 2020

Jaquelyn Faye McMillan entered into eternal rest on March 22, 2020. Jaquelyn was born in New Orleans, LA on December 23, 1942 to the late Edward McMillan and Laura Lee McMillan.

She was active in the church, notably St. Paul A.M.E. Church, Union Bethel A.M.E. Church, Morris Brown A.M.E. Church, Cummings Temple A.M.E. Church and Evening Star Missionary Baptist Church to name a few and she often attended the A.M.E. Church's national conventions.

Ms. Jaquelyn was a proud graduate of McDonogh #35 Senior High School, where she was the valedictorian of the Class of 1960 and remained extremely active in their alumni association. She was a graduate of Texas Southern University and Xavier University School of Pharmacy in New Orleans. Jaquelyn went on to work as a pharmacist at Hackett's drug store and Walgreen's drug store before she retired.

She was a proud lifelong member of Zeta Phi Beta who also loved performing her civic duty as a polling commissioner for all local, state and national elections and greeted everyone with a smile.

Jaquelyn was an avid real estate investor who enjoyed working in her beautiful garden. She loved dogs and could be seen walking her dogs daily.

Jaquelyn was survived by her sister Laurene McMillan (who many thought was her twin as they always did everything together), her brother Allen McMillan and his wife Lorraine McMillan, her nephew Brian H. McMillan, Esq., her great nieces Rayne Alexa McMillan and Bailey Hankerson McMillan, and a host of other cousins, relatives and friends.

“ Cousins. I'm so deeply sadden when I think about what you meant to us and you're no longer here. You were Our family tour guides into our deep family roots. Our matriachs. I moved to Louisiana to be closer to you both. Our bloodline has no ties in NOLA now. It all happen so unfairly. No more coming "home" to rummage through all my big momma's photos (Julia Lee), Aunt Eloise glassware, go by Aunt Nancy's place. I can't set foot in Aunt Laura's kitchen. I'm going to miss yall dearly big cousins! What is NOLA without their McMillan duo? RIP Allen..my family

“ Ms. Jackie and Ms. Lurene have been part of the St. Paul's Episcopal School family for many yeas. They started attending out senior computer class after Hurricane Katrina and have been faithful "students" every Friday morning. Our children learned to love and respect them, and the children probably learned more from them then our wonderful ladies learned from their student teachers. Ms. Jackie and Ms. Lurene attended our school assemblies, Grandparents' Day celebrations, school plays, Thanksgiving Feast, and so much more. We are saddened by their passing, but happy and blessed that we had the opportunity to meet, know, and grow to love these incredible ladies. We are richer as a school community to have welcomed them into our family. We will never forget you Ms. Jackie ans Ms. Lurene!

“ I am praying that God who does all things perfect will comfort and keep you in perfect peace. I encourage you to let the memories of your loved one give you joy and the assurance of God's love to give you peace and strength.

I pray knowing that her last breath on earth was followed by her first breath in the arms of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ will give you solace.

In His grace,
Carolyn

“ Jackie was a sweet, gentle spirit who will be terribly missed by her sorority sisters of Alpha Gamma Zeta Chapter. She was dedicated to serving the community and always willing to help when needed. I pray that we all find comfort in knowing that she is resting peacefully with her Heavenly Father.

“ I was shocked when I heard of Jackie's passing. We had just spoken a few weeks prior to her passing. Jackie was my second opinion pharmacist and I always call when I have questions. I always followed her advice. I am going to miss you Soror and family friend. Love, Doreen

“ So many great memories I wouldn't know where to begin. Ms. Mac was such an inspiration. I've done all I could to be just like her. I remember the day I met her and she vowed to teach me everything she knew. We use to spend hours laughing and talking. She taught me all about how to be a great pharmacist and how to put my money into real estate, and I kept her laughing with countless inside jokes. It's sounds strange but she was more than a mentor, she was a friend. I will eternally miss my friend. Rest in peace Ms. Mac.

We grew-up in the same neighborhood, in Carrollton. I attended their church for Summer Bible School. She was always a sweet child. Her mother & mine were friends. She was such a gentle giant; although she was petite. May she R.I.H.P. She was an asset to our Community as an adult. Cornelia Howard-Dunnings
