“ To my dearest, best friend I will miss all of our heart to hearts, your wise advise and our 30 years of knowing each other. Though you are not hear physically you will always be with me in spirit. From the time you took me in in 1975 I knew you were in my life for a reason. You encouraged me to return to school to get my degree and many, many other things that no one else has done. You are loved and will be missed.

“ Jean, I am going to miss our talks and weekly lunches. We shared a lifelong bond as cousins and your loss pains me so much. But comfort comes in knowing that you are in Our father's loving care and in the belief that I will see you again. rest my darling angel for He knew you had grown weary.

Dorothy and Family - We here in Alaska at the Gwen Synegal Marcus family send our sympathy for your loss but rejoice at the gain of Christ in the return of His Child, Jean Marie. I had not seen Jean for a long, long time BUT upon hearing her name, the first thing that came to mind is how she would light up and smile upon seeing someone she loved. She always had time for family and friends, even when she was not feeling well. To her children -I do not know you except thru your mom; she always kept your in the forefront of her conversation, hopes, prayers and heart. God Bless you all.
