

Jean Marie Francis

August 28, 2024

Jean Marie Francis was born August 18, 1942 in New Orleans, Louisiana to the late Marshall Francis and Marguerite Russell. She received Christ as her lord and savior at an early age. Jean received her education foundation in New Orleans Public School System.

She was employed at Lafayette Hotel housekeeping department and later worked on her own doing housekeeping. She never married and had no children of her own. She was raised from the age of three months by her late uncle James and late Aunt Dorothy Mae Watson. Who later then had four children of their own, James, Rose (the late Dale), and Calvin Watson.

She spent her time watching TV, Jean loved her soaps, game show, and the Saints. She always had a smile on her face for everyone and always had a conversation for everyone. She loved her family, church, and friends. Jean love talking to people. She never had a harsh word for anyone. She loved life and was happy in it.

Jean was the sister of the late Myrtle, Joseph, and Iris Russell, Louise Temple, the late Dorothy Mae, and Emmanuel Temple.

On Saturday, August 28, 2024, Jean was called home to Heaven. She leaves to cherish her memories with her niece Lorrain and nephew Terry Russell, a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, her beloved family members, church members, relatives and friends.

Jean will be truly missed.
