“ Mr. Chambers, you always told me I yak yak yak and never shut up. 😊 Yep I did yak, but I also listened to you when we weren't getting on each others nerves. Or you wasn't calling me hardheaded.

Many times you should have fired me but you didn't.

You taught me a lot (how to fix just about anything).

You gave me fatherly advice that you told me you knew I wouldn't heed.

You always had words of praise for my children and grandchildren. I'll miss your smile and how every conversation we ever had you always told me whatever is wrong to just leave it in the hands of the good Lord.

Well Mr. Chambers you're with Him now and He's telling you, " Job well done."

Forever in my heart, Squeaky
