

Joseph Bolden Sr.

August 29, 2014

Joseph Anthony Bolden, Sr., 76, a lifelong resident of New Orleans LA. died Friday, August 29, 2014. "Joe" Bolden, son of Joseph Bolden and Carrie Montgomery, loving husband of Carolyn Holmes Bolden, passed away on August 29th while in hospital. He is predeceased by his grandmother, Virginia Smith, his parents, his son, Jonathan Bolden, and grandson Sean Bolden. He is survived by his two sons Joseph Jr. and Javaron Bolden. He is also survived by five grandchildren, Christian, Brittany, Chelsea, Eddie, and Javaron, Jr. Joe Bolden was a graduate of Joseph S Clark Senior High School, and attended church at St Paul. He was a veteran of the US Navy, and honorably served his country during the Korean War. He also loved fishing, and in earlier years could be found out on his boat daily. He was an avid supporter of his beloved New Orleans Saints, and an active member of the Knights of St. Peter Claver and the Outsiders Social and Pleasure Club. He also enjoyed spending time with friends and family. He was known and loved for his wit and keen sense of humor which endeared him greatly to his grandchildren and everyone he came in contact with. He will be greatly missed by his family and friends.

“ Our deepest condolences to the family. Joe. Jr and I have been great friends since grammar school. My mother and Mrs. Bolden were great friends. Mr. Bolden always treated me like family whenever I was by their home, during Joe 'Butter's and my younger days. .
