“ I was saddened to hear of Joe's family. I remember him from playing in the band and many happy high school times. I guess we are all reaching that time of life, so many people I grew up with are sharing my prayers as they pass over to that other life.

I know Joe's family is proud of him. He lived a good, full and productive life.

“ God bless the Gibson family, I am Joe's (probably 1st) Goddaughter, Cheryl Scott Spurlin - the last time I was in New Orleans I was blessed to have made contact with him and always remembered him as a loving and affectionate God-Father - I always cherished that relationship and thought of him often and was sadden to hear of his passing. Rest on God Father say hello to my dad, grandmother and family that you know. Thank you for standing in and being a great God-Father. Love n misses in heaven and God bless your soul! RIParadise!!!
