

Joyce Bidol Evans

February 7, 2020

Joyce Bidol Evans entered into eternal rest, February 7, 2020 on the wings of love, at the age of 91. She was born in New Orleans, Louisiana on December 22, 1928 to the late John Bidol, Sr. and Laura Baham Bidol. She was preceded in death by her son, Frank J. Bidol and her sister Jessie Bidol. She is survived by three children; Byron J. Evans(Phyllis), Verita G. Thomas(Charles) and Renaldo P. Gutierrez. She is also survived by four siblings, John Bidol, Jr.(Claire), Una B. Millet(Nolan), Marguerite B. Johnson(Ellis) and Merlene B. Walker(Clinard). Also survived by 10 grand children, 10 great grandchildren along with step grand children and a host of nieces, nephews, and other relatives and friends.

Joyce worked for The Sisters of the Holy for over 30 years beginning with Lafon Boys Home. She also worked at St. Mary's Academy and House of the Holy Family where she eventually retired. Her connection with the Sisters didn't end there however. She later resided at Delille Inn and eventually Lafon Nursing home until her death.

Affectionately known as MawMaw, Joyce loved being around family and if the music was right, was glad to show off a few of her dance moves. She also loved going out to eat and often after her appointments she would say "Are we going to lunch? My treat". She was a very stern, but kind person. She had a look that told you when you did something that she didn't like and a heart that loved you in spite of it.

“ Dear Friend and Neighbor,

I am so sorry for the loss of your dear sister. When I saw her picture I could tell you are sisters. I would like to have a Mass said in her memory at St. Anselm that we could attend together if possible. You and your family are in our thoughts and prayers. May she rest in peace in the arms of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, dancing with the angels and worshipping our God and Father. Carmen, Jerry and Douglas O'Mara
