

Juawane Larry Gray

June 21, 2017

Let not your hearts be troubled. Believe in God, believe also in me. In my father's house are many rooms. If it were not so, would I have told you that I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and will take you to myself, that where I am you may be also. And you know that way to where I am going.

Juawane Larry Gray, 19 of New Orleans, LA was born January 23, 1998 to Dwan Nicole Gettridge and Zaron Larry Gray. He attended Calvary Baptist and graduated from Archbishop Shaw High School in 2016, where he ran track, played basketball and football. He was currently enrolled at Southeastern University majoring in Graphic Design. Juawane attended Bethlehem Stranger's Home Baptist Church where he accepted Christ and was baptized May 1, 2011. Juawane was born a leader. He led by example, not only for his football team, but for his family. He provided an example of how to become a young adult.

Juawane is survived by his parents Dwan N. Gettridge (Brian Harris) and Zaron Larry Gray (Ashley Gray); brother Makhi Harris. He also leaves to cherish his paternal grandmother, Glinda Gray Sutton; God parents Juanita Toefield, Lionel Burse, Nicole Smith and Willie Jenkins. He is also survived by a host of aunts, uncles, other relatives and friends. He is preceded in death by his grandparents Linda and Dwight Debose and Archie Gray.

Relatives and friends of the family, pastors, officers and members of Willing Workers Baptist Church and Bethlehem Stranger's Home Baptist Church, also employees of Kingsley House, Ochsner Hospital, Archbishop Shaw High School, Mudd Bugs Catering, Atlanta Technical College and Southeastern Louisiana University (Northshore Technical Community College) are invited to attend Funeral Services on Saturday, July 1, 2017 at Bethlehem Stranger's Home Baptist Church at 11:00am. Visitation will begin at 9:00am. Interment: Providence Memorial Park Cemetery. Arrangements by D.W. Rhodes Funeral Home, 3933 Washington Ave.

“ Praying for your family in your hours of bereavement. Juawane and my grandson Devante were good friends @ Shaw. I know his beautiful smile, and his politeness. Remember he was a Christian (Christ like), therefore if you keep the faith, you WILL see him again.

“ I had the privilege of teaching Juawane twice as his religion teacher at Shaw. I honestly cannot remember a day when he was not smiling, enthusiastic or full of gratitude. My thoughts and prayers are with his family during this difficult time. It was a joy to know him.
