“ Kenneth was the most caring thoughtful person I've ever met... I appreciate the man he became and taking on a great responsibility that most men don't do, he was an awesome father, and I am grateful that his parents raised such a man... My heart and prayers go up to heaven for his wife, children, and family on their great loss... He will be truly missed... Rest Kenneth my brother, my friend... We love you and will never forget you and that beautiful smile... Love always Crystal
