Judge Kenneth Vaughn handled my adoption when I was born in 1969, he was an attorney then. I talked to judge Kenneth Vaughn about 15 years ago when I lived in Grand Prairie we found his number in the phone book and I called him and he was very nice He remembered my adoption he remembered my family he remembered handling my dad's affairs when he passed away in 1982 He said he would release the records from Garland memorial where I was born I wasn't interested at the time but I am now and I just barely missed him like this. Just Kenneth Vaughn was a very good man He was very friendly and kind to me and I send my thoughts and prayers to the family.
