“ I wasn't able to say goodbye to my uncle whom I loved with all my heart. Our family was separated by Katrina and things have not been the same since. You only have one family in life and sometimes we take that for granted. We never let those we love know how much we care then it's too late. My heart is heavy with the lost of my mom, my grandma, my brother and my uncle. I think about them all the time. I just pray that the family that is still here can come together and love each other.
