“ My condolences to the the family and close friends of one of the strongest and fistiest woman I have ever known. Kim you were a close friend , mentor, and mother figure to me. I will never forget the times we shared, and the life lessons you taught me. I am saddened that over the years we lost contact due to Katrina, and I had to here about your life ending in this way. I will remember you as you were in my memories and cherish the times we shared. I love you always.

“ *Lord,
I am crying out to you.
Lord, my emotions are screaming at me.
Lord, I feel alone.
Sadness surrounds me, and depression is pulling me down.
I long for what I have lost. I ache.
My loss permeates my mind and my emotions. My grief aggressively tries to influence the course of most of my waking moments.
Father, help me process my loss. Help me move forward. Help me to welcome joy into those places of pain.
Lord, I need to draw nearer to you. You are my hope and my salvation through this dark valley.*

*I pray in Jesus' name,
Amen
