

Lachanity Breon Hampton

December 18, 2022

A star was born on December 1, 1986 in New Orleans, LA to the late great Gail Ann (Hampton) Wilkerson and Willie Wilson. Lachanity Breon Hampton aka Reenie as we called her, had a bubbly personality and was a burst of energy. Her charisma led to her being voted “most popular” and crowned homecoming queen at Joseph S. Clark High School in which she graduated in 2004. Her charm and comical personality was consistent through her adult years which is why she left her mark on everyone she encountered. Reenie was the life of any party; outgoing, sometimes loud, a definite straight shooter, but also a motivational, positive, sweet, sensitive and compassionate person. She was funny and would oftentimes make you laugh until you cried.

Lachanity was the youngest of 3 children and was loved wholeheartedly by her siblings and entire family. She filled a void left by her mom by displaying a whimsical resemblance to her mother’s personality. Her greatest and most memorable accomplishment was being a mom to Keon. When Keon was born she went into true momma bear mode ensuring his every need was fulfilled and their future was secure. She enjoyed seeing her lively personality in her son (Gail lives on). They shared a common love language of food. Reenie expressed her love daily for Keon, they were so close he would still get in her bed to sleep a few times a week.

Reenie was a dedicated mother, sister, aunt, friend and employee. She leaves to cherish her memory and spirit, son, Keon Robinson Jr.; sister, Shawntise Williams-Sims; brother, Leonidas Hampton (O’Dwyer “Co”); brother, Al Sims; half brother, Rico Wilson. Nieces & Nephews: Tallè Kesley, Leyonce and Aaliyah Davis, Allen and Sydney Sims, Leonidas (Jr) and Ali Hampton, and Lacie Doucet. Aunts and Uncles: Currise Taylor, Ann Carter, Gladys Hampton, Curry Williams Jr. and Clyde Carter. Granddaughter of the late Madeline Williams Ellois, Augusta Carter, Rosetta McKnight-Williams and Curry Williams Sr. She is also survived by a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, and devoted friends.

Relatives and friends of the family are invited to attend the Funeral Service at Mt. Moriah Baptist Church, 3034 Andover Street on Friday, December 30, 2022 at 10:00 am. Visitation will begin at 9:00 am. Interment: Providence Memorial Park Cemetery. Arrangements by D.W. Rhodes Funeral Home, 3933 Washington Avenue. “ Truly the life of any party.... We traveled together and she was my roommate, all she wanted to do was sleep and eat lol. Man I'm going to miss my girl. We met thru my cousin, worked at Rouses & Lowes together, developed a very close friendship, clowned wherever we went. I know she's cutting up in heaven with that leg shake. Love u my girl. ❤️

“ There were plenty...I knew her as a young girl. She was my lil P.I. (insider) lol. I remember when she was in trouble at school and her teacher wanted to see me Gail lol. She (Reenie) came to get me and ask me to bring her back to school and be her aunt lol, smh. I brought her back and was talking to teacher listening to her tell me bout her behavior lmao 🤔. I was standing there laughing on inside while Reenie stood there with her smirk...man we laughed our butts off...we didn't even tell anyone but us lol. So many memories even the last one when you came in 7th ward. Our last convo I will cherish 🙏. Your soul is eternal and we will keep you alive cause we die once and live forever! Amen 🙏

“ Man man man, so many Reenie from a younger you, your personality rocked 😊. I remembered when you was at Clark and your teacher needed to speak to Ms Gail r.l.u. (😭) because you was being disruptive in class. You came and asked me to be your aunt and bring you back to school. I was talking to teacher like : 1: 🟪 was gone relate it all to your mom, but we laughed our butts off...it's a lot. We didn't talk much, but when we did it was meaningful and fun. Rest well sister
