“ I just learned that this wonderful lady has moved on to God’s Place where we all long to be! I may not have known Linda as well as others in my family, but I always felt so much at peace in her presence as though her beautiful God-spirit were reaching out to me. One of my fondest memories is of Linda volunteering to hold my baby for me during Sunday mass to allow me to sing with the choir. She took care of my daughter like one of her own. And, of course, we are all one in God’s Family. Linda’s going Home is sad only because we miss her but it certainly is beautiful. My tears can only be of joy for her moving on to a Place beyond our imaginations. Mrs. Battiste, Sam, Sharon, Edith and all, my heart is with you! With much Love, Felicia Hornsby Cooper
