

Linda Lenoir Jenkins

November 30, 2018

Linda Faye Lenoir-Jenkins was born on March 19, 1954 to the proud parents of James Ernest and Lillie Bernice Lenoir in New Orleans, LA at Charity Hospital. She graduated from Booker T. Washington High School in New Orleans, LA in 1972 and shortly after started her career. She met her husband Edward Jenkins, Jr. in January 1983 at the Touch of Class Night Club. He approached her at the club and with her witty personality responded, "I'm in the phone book." They were married on November 19, 1988 and are the proud parents of their only child Edward Jenkins, III who was born in Dallas, TX.

She was a proud mother and cherished nothing more than spending time with her family and friends. She even treated her co-workers like family. She was employed by Xerox for over 30 years where she retired as an account manager. In her career, she excelled and was recognized with multiple President's Club Awards for over achievement in sales. She also was an active member of MUSR (Minorities United in the Southern Region). Up until her homegoing she still maintained great relationships with her previous co-workers.

She accepted Christ at an early age at Loving Four Baptist Church in New Orleans, LA. In 1995, she joined Little Zion Missionary Baptist Church in Kenner, LA under the leadership of Rev. Leroy A. Taylor where she remained a devoted member until her transition.

Linda was a beautiful, meticulous, fun loving, and vibrant woman. She loved holidays, family functions, social events, attending concerts, dancing, and festivals. She was a devoted mother; anyone that knew her, knew that her son was her pride and joy. After retirement, she became a dedicated member at the local YMCA attending numerous workout classes daily. She cherished the bonds and relationships that she developed with her "work out crew." This past summer she won an award at the Kenner, LA YMCA for attending the most classes. She was known by many for her infectious laugh and smile. She was preceded in death by her mother, Lillie B Lenoir; her father, James E Lenoir; sisters, Patricia Keating and Debbie Lenoir; brother, Michael Jones; uncles, John Lenoir and Lawrence Chaney; aunts, Clara Buckles, Lillian Jones, Ollie Chaney, and Eva McGee; niece, Shandricka Boullt; nephew, Jovan Boullt; and great nephew, Sheldon B Boullt.

She leaves to cherish her memories: Her husband, Edward Jenkins, Jr.; son, Edward Jenkins, III (Nia); two brothers, James Lenoir, Jr., and Steven Lenoir (Edna); one sister, Kim Lenoir; her niece, Tiffany Funches; her mother-in-law, Dorothy Jenkins; three sisters-in-law, Erma Jones (Robert), Mazie Jenkins (Glenn), Darlene Jenkins-Ray (Cordell); devoted nephew, Dr. Chuckson Holloway; devoted niece, Laquondra Shaw, a host of other nieces, nephews, relatives, friends, and her YMCA and Xerox members

“But I would not have you to be ignorant, brethren, concerning them which are asleep, that ye sorrow not, even as others which have no hope. For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him. For this we say unto you by the word of the Lord, that we which are alive and remain unto the coming of the Lord shall not prevent them which are asleep. For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first: Then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord. Wherefore comfort one another with these words.”
