“ To the Henry family, I send my deepest condolences. Mr. Henry, unfortunately I never got the pleasure of meeting you but your daughter Madora spoke very highly of you during our years together. Your presence will be missed by many. You may have left this earth physically but your spirit will continue to be with those you left behind. May your soul rest in peace.

“ To the Henry family you have my condolences. I saw this poem and it reminded me of your loss.

*I finished life's chores assigned to me,
So put me on a boat headed out to sea.
Please send along my fishing pole
For I've been invited to the fishin' hole.*

*Where every day is a day to fish,
To fill your heart with every wish.
Don't worry, or feel sad for me,
I'm fishin' with the Master of the sea.*

*We will miss each other for awhile,
But you will come and bring your smile.
That won't be long you will see,
Till we're together you and me.*

*To all of those that think of me,
Be happy as I go out to sea.
If others wonder why I'm missin'
Just tell 'em I've gone fishin'*

My Deepest Sympathies, Edward Jackson

“ Mr. Lloyd, you will be sorely missed; you always had a kind word and enjoyed when I came to visit. I will always cherish spending time with the family during my teenage into adult hood years. Your grandson, Haiman D. Clark remembers spending time on the boat with you and his father, going out into the Gulf and seeing dolphins swim, racing through the water. He's never forgotten the time he shared with the two of you. Much love.
