January 11, 2025

Lloyd Morris Hill Jr. was born on 7-21-1953 in New Orleans, LA to the proud parents Maime Lee Smith Hill and Lloyd M. Hill Sr. On Saturday 1-11-2025 Lloyd, affectionately known as “Mo-Hill”, was called home by Our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. He was preceded in death by his grandparents Lloyd and Ella Mae Hill, his mother Maime Lee Smith Hill, his father Lloyd M. Hill Sr., his sister Marion J. Hill Davis Pollard and brother Harold Hill. He leaves to mourn one sister Patricia Ann Hill DeRouen (Stanley), nephew Stanley J. DeRouen (Nicole), life partner Evelyn Atkinson “PIE” and a host of other friends and relatives.

Lloyd graduated from Alcee Fortier High School and later joined the NAVY. After serving, his love of horses drew him to River Bend Stables where he worked for several years. He later was employed by Tulane University’s Food Services Department as “Head Chef” until his retirement.

Lloyd was a cherished member of our family. He was known for his kindness and sense of humor and work ethic and genuine love for people. He was passionate about reading, all sports, cooking and love for horses and always brought joy and laughter to all those around him. He will be sadly missed but never forgotten.
