“ My Aunt Lois, or Aunt Lo as I liked to call her was like a second mother to me. My mother was closer to her than any of her other sisters. I remember as a child the two of them would spend hours on the phone talking and swapping stories about the children that they taught. She sent me Madam Alexander dolls each year for Christmas until I was too old for them. I remember going to live with her for a while when I was pre-teen and how she kept a watchful eye over me. She was a lovely woman and an inspiration to everyone. She passed on her sisters (my mothers) birthday so it was a double whammy for me. I wanted so much for her to see her Great Niece Saffiah and for her Great Niece to see her. Aunt Lo I will miss you greatly but I know you had a good and long life and that you had no regrets. I love you and I will keep your memory.
