“ To Family of Mrs. Lucille;

Mrs. Lucille was a visionary I met at best 30 years ago. I had become a tour guide for the city of New Orleans. She and her husband Chester was the only persons who were event planners (a term they popularized), tour guides of New Orleans and other areas of Louisiana, either walking or riding in their bus for tours. THEY WERE THE FIRST. She was always interested in oral history and genealogy and was always willing to help. Miss Lucille always had a smile and kind world for everyone she met. I will miss her but I have and will always maintain the lessons learned from her. I bet she and Mr. Chester are serving as directors and connecting people with each other. My condolences to all of you.

“ Keisha, my baby Keith y'all have my deepest, deepest sympathy. I was so sorry to hear about Lou, Keith you know I always called your mama Lou since we were kids and she always called me Olive Oil from Popeyes because I was so skinny. I know it's a hard pill to swallow but know that God is with y'all. I love y'all and will keep all of you in my prayers.

“ Lou you and my mama know y'all use to have a good time back in the day, going to those dances and parties. I have all my mama pictures of y'all with y'all cane cane slips to make y'all dresses be sticking way way out. When she would look at those pictures she would say girl me and Lucille my dad Bill and Chester use to have a good time. So Lou as I use to call you that's the memories of you that came to my mind of those pictures. So Lou take your rest all of y'all are gone now but I have a lot of pictures to remember y'all and look at and smile, RIP Lucille.
