

Luerean P. Hunter

February 1, 2021

Luerean P. Hunter-our matriarch, our queen, our Mama, our Grandmama, our Grand Lady, our Grandma Hunter, our Great-Grandmama, our Great Great-Grandmama- was the loving and beloved heart and soul of our family: giver of unconditional love, keeper of secrets, healer of pain and heartaches, spreader of knowledge, problem solver, granter of wishes, , tireless advocate, creator of memories, family historian, peace maker, giver of "packages", obsequious listener, regular of stories, transformer of dreams into reality...

Giver of unconditional love, keeper of secrets, healer of pain and heartbreak...our matriarch, our queen...was born in the Mississippi Delta on March 5, 1930. She moved to her beloved adoptive city of New Orleans in 1956. Here she flourished personally- giving tirelessly of herself to her family by birth, family by work, family by happenstance, friends, acquaintances, stranger, it mattered not-; professionally- cherished and devoted housekeeper and care giver to the Schoenberg family for thirty plus years, renowned creator of tantalizing mouth-watering cuisine, recognized modiste extraordinaire-; and spiritually- epitome of Matthew 25:40, exemplar of James 2:18 embodiment of 1Corinthians 13:4-8. On the evening of February 1, 2021, after a three month struggle precipitated by the Coronavirus which robbed her of strength, energy, and zest, she transitioned to her Heavenly home.

Granter of wishes, tireless advocate, creator of memories...our Mama, our Grandmama, our Grand Lady, our Grandma Hunter...was the Daughter of Joseph Delaney and Isabella Davis Champion; Sister of Verna Stubberfield

Moore, Christine Hollins, Emma Smith, Walterine Pickens, Joseph Delaney, Lorene Delaney, Ruth Ann Johnson, Katherine Dickson Roosevelt Delaney, and John Delaney; Mother of Sullivan Hunter, James Hunter Jr., Joe Lee Hunter, and Mary L.H. “ We lived across the street from Ms. Luerean for 6 years. I remember she used to make frozen cups for the neighborhood children in the summertime and mini pecan (my personal favorite) and sweet potato pies in the fall. She was such a sweet lady and my husband and I loved her very much. We are sorry to learn she passed. We send our prayers to her family.
