“ To Aunt Cleotha my heart goes out to you and your family. My heart is sooo broken now and I still can't believe that Lydia is gone. I'll never forget the times when Lydia and Kathy would come and spend some nights with us. It seems like it was just yesterday we visited with y'all. Family it's hard but I pray to God that he gives us the strength to carry on. Lydia was a very kind hearted and humble individual. You will definitely be missed but never ever forgotten. Rest In Peace my beautiful cuzin

“ I still cant believe you're gone my sweet, selfless, nurturing , humorous, generous to a fault Cuz. I have very fond memories of our summer vacations at your Auntie Gladys & Uncle Willie's home in Boyce and vice versa at our Auntie Cleo & Uncle home in New Orleans 😊! We lost contact over our grown up years, but oh yeah we reminisced and rebonded at your moma , my Auntie Cleo's home in Hammond along with my bestie, beloved miss so much Auntie Modear Asarean while we celebrated your Moma Cleo's , my dear, sweet, loving Auntie's 90th Birthday Bash 😊😭 , so much fun!!! You were one strong, firewater beautiful young daughter, sister,cousin, friend, mom, auntie, etc!! You may be going home sweetie to meet your master, but this is one cousin whom will neve TX forget you sweetie 😭💕🙏!!! With the most fondest memories within my heart and thoughts my sweet cousin 😭💕 ..Your loving first cousin, Denise (Niesy) Jones

“ Lydia was the most caring teacher. She was so dedicated to her students and always tried her hardest to be there for them. She lived her belief in Jesus and was a true Christian. This world will miss her.

Lydia was a wonderful, sweet lady, and a dear friend. She always put the needs of others before herself. Those of us who were lucky enough to have had her as a friend, are forever blessed. I'm so sorry for your loss. I know you're with the Lord now Lydia, and Heaven has another angel. I'll miss you and be forever grateful for you kindness and friendship.

Losing our cousin so suddenly was very shocking. Lydia was a very beautiful person both inside and out who loved her mother dearly. We had such a blast at Aunties 90th Birthday party and Lydia was right there being the perfect hostess making everyone feel at home. I am so sad that we didn't get to have more time with you, but God's time is not our time. May you Rest In Peace and May God bring comfort to my auntie, because I know this is going to be very hard on her. I love u cousin!
