“ Rest in paradise to my beautiful grandmother. I would often see her with my Auntie June, and even though I sometimes had to remind her who I was, she always told me I was beautiful ever since I was a little girl. ♡♡

“ My memory of Mrs. Cooper is the quiet, caring, sharing, and kind lady. It was a joy to be around her and speak with her by telephone.

June I feel the pain of your and the family's loss. You have our abundant love and condolences. Remember the friendship and love we have shared through the years--just call us.

Your greatest relief is knowing that when our tomorrow's cross is heavier than our yesterday's, our Savior will lift the weight allowing us to fly away to the promised heavenly place. Mrs. Mable is at rest.

The love of God and his blessings be with you always!

“ She was my good Buddy, we sat on the same pew when ever she was able. When she was able to attend the services it was an honor to attend to her needs. Sister was always taking my purse telling me it was hers. We would read the Bible to follow the Minister as he brought the word of the day. When it was time to bring your money, that was a feat because June would give it to me so she wouldn't have to take everything out her purse looking for it. Usually she would want to give her own money but about time she would find it the Deacons were all going to the back. She was a sweet person to have as a Godly friend. Will be sadly missed not having her with me on our pew. (God does not require us to understand His will, just obey it, even if it seems unreasonable).
