

Malcolm J. Babin

August 11, 2021

Malcolm J. Babin passed away Wednesday afternoon August 11, 2021 at his residence in Algiers at the age of 89. He was born in Duplessis, LA and lived in Westwego, Houma, Charlotte, NC, and New Orleans, LA. After graduating from Westwego High School Mack joined the U.S. Marine Corps. and served for 6 years. His duty took him to Korea and ended with a post in New Orleans. After the service he worked for Schlumberger Offshore Services for 31 years as a petroleum engineer. He was an avid bass fisherman and always found the big ones. After retiring, Malcolm moved with his wife Beth to Charlotte, N.C. where he pursued his second passion, pottery. He was a member of the N.C. Pottery Guild and showed his work at galleries and shows throughout the region. Malcolm was son of the late Terrance Babin and Irene Aguilar Babin. He is survived by three sons, Malcolm Babin, Jr. (Judy), Terrance Babin (Shirley) and Blair Babin (Julie) and grandchildren Saxon, Trey, Jessica (Aaron) McNeil and Malcolm and three great-grandchildren, Braydon, Evan, and Owen. He is predeceased by his sister Barbara Romero (John) and his grandson Brandon. The family would like to give special thanks to Lydia Alexander and Bobbi Gervais who cared for him at home.
