

Malcolm Hay

June 6, 2014

Malcolm Hay was a husband and father who enjoyed the company of his family and friends. He Left his footprints on the hearts of everyone he met, he made everyone feel special. He was affectionately known as, “Mac, the bread” man by many of his friends and family. He was born April 2, 1972 in Bastrop, LA and spent his youth in California. He later returned to Louisiana and received his High School Diploma from Slidell High School in Slidell, LA. After meeting his wife and soul mate, Sarah Hay, he relocated to Baton Rouge, LA to pursue his career as an independent distributor. Malcolm was a true example of pursuing the American dream. He set goals in his life and worked very hard to obtain them with the help of his wife, Sarah. He was influenced by many men in his life, their advice, guidance and counsel helped him to be the man he was. However, it was not only the words the men spoke to encourage him, it was also the drive and determination that Malcolm had within him. He leaves his wife and best friend, Sarah Hay, to cherish his memories, his daughter, Kerstin Hay, a son Dwight Dedeaux, Jr. (Ashley) and 2 grandsons, Jordan and Zion Dedeaux. He also leaves his father, Nathan Winston, of Slidell, LA, his mother, Lucy Hay-Miller, of Rialto, CA and “Bonus Mom”, Juliette Winston, of Slidell, LA. He loved both his mom dearly, when they were in the same room Malcolm would call out mom and they both would answer. He was also loved dearly by his Step-Father Robert “Bobby” Miller of Rialto, CA. His brothers, Andrew Winston (Aileen), of Slidell, LA, Carlos Hay of Pomoma, CA and Willie Davis (Nancy) of Baton Rouge, LA and Mother-in-law, Stella Degree of Pass Christian, MS and father-in-law John B. McKay, Sr. will sadly miss him. Malcom was preceded in death by his brother, George Roman Hay, Paternal Grandparents, James and Clora Winston, Maternal Grandparents, James Denson Hay and Lucy Watt Hay. Malcolm Hay departed this life at the age of 42 on June 6, 2014 doing what he loves most of all, delivering bread to local stores. “ To: Sarah, Kerstin, Nathan, & Lucy (Nellwyn)

It is with deep sympathy and tenderness of heart, that we, your family express to you in a feeble way, our sincere sympathy for you in the death of your love one. We are hoping that these words, in some degree give you comfort in such dark hours as these, which are yours at this time.

You must find comfort and consolation in the words of Jesus, who said: "Cast your burdens on Him, for earth hath no sorrows that Heaven cannot heal."

Lift up your head and be strong, knowing you did what you could for his comfort, ease and peace, until the end. God saw and he knows, therefore, we commend you to Him, who is able to comfort and cheer, and will dry your tears and heal your broken heart, if you will put your unwavering faith in Him.

We are praying for you; you must also pray, for time and prayer will bring you relief. Make God your hope and look up to the hills from whence cometh your help. May God bless you and give you strength and courage.

Sympathetically yours,

Cousins George & Louise Simpson
