“ I offer up prayer to the family of Sis. Littles. To my Deacon, Friend, and Brother Thierrone Wise. I know what your grandmother meant to you, but your love couldn't keep her here on earth. Because God loved her more, He called her home to be with HIM.

“ Rest peacefully old lady, I know you're in a better place and you're no longer suffering. I'll miss you forever and ever. I'll never forget your lessons, moments shared and your smile. Chance bought you some cookies the other day, we'll hold on to them for we shall meet again. Love, MaeMae

“ To my family,
I have so great memories of times I spent as a little girl at Neal's house in New Orleans and going around the corner to get candy and ice bergs as well as in the country, Kentwood. I remember running from the crazy hogs, chickens, and cows. She was like an aunt to me, and I really didn't know that she was a cousin until my teenage years. I remember calling her Aunt Neal because she and my grandmother were like sisters. You didn't see one without the other. Oh the great memories! I remember spending time with my nanny Jewel Littles (Black) and playing with my god-brothers. We had so many good times. Nanny be encouraged and ask God for His Heavenly strength. He is able to do exceedingly above anything we can ask or think. You did a great job! You have always put family first. Now is the time for you to hold to every memory as well as God's hand. He can and will strengthen you and all my cousins, aunts, and uncles (your children, grandchildren, neices, nephews, brothers and sisters). I love you (my family so much). I pray God's peace and understanding over each of your lives. Lord, let my family rest in you! Again, Love you so much!

Grace and Peace,

“ Praying for the Littles family. Know that there's no pain, God cannot feel. No hurt, he cannot heal. This was a remarkable woman, our Queen, but we must not be selfish in allowing her to enter into eternal PEACE and rest with her Lord and Savior.
