“ Our Deepest & most Sincere condolences to Marrio's family, loved ones and friends.....

My husband & I were neighbors who quickly became good friends with Marrio here in ATL for 14 years. He was one of the BEST neighbors and most importantly, friends we'd ever meet! Not just to us, but to everyone he met! Not only was Marrio kind, generous beyond measure, a friend to all with a heart of gold and an infectious smile; he was extremely gifted & talented in too many ways to list here. He was a natural leader & elected our first official HOA president, had a way with people, and everything he did was classy, decent, and in order. He was well known for his gift of a discerning eye for anything design. Many of us knew him for having the most beautifully decorated home around! His taste was impeccable! I could go on and on about Marrio. He was just that kind of person; not many of which you meet in a lifetime. I will sum it up with this; He had a brilliant mind, a heart of gold, a beautiful spirit and kind soul; all the while, humble. He was truly one of a kind and I feel blessed that our life paths crossed.

To Marrio's Mom.....He LOVED & cared about you immensely! His face lit up every time he gave us an update of your well-being upon his return from each visit.

What gives me the greatest comfort is knowing Marrio loved the Lord! He was God-fearing and had unwavering Faith. I find peace in knowing this without a doubt! It's this fact that brings me comfort in knowing this is not goodbye. This is so long, until I see you on the other side.

Praying for you Peace that can only come from God.

“ Marrio my friend. I am so thankful to have met such an amazing person. You were a big brother, friend. Someone who could sew anything , make an exquisite meal , build and paint a wall, so much you did that made so many people happy. And that was outside the job you had, from recruiting to flying. Fly high! You will be greatly missed. RIP my dear friend.

“ Marrío was a very, very nice guy. I've only known him for a few years, but he always showed me kindness. The last conversation I had with him was back on the summer. He opened up about his condition and was looking forward to healing, but God had other plans. Now, he's resting in his masters arms, where he will spend eternity in the most beautiful place, that we all hope to get to one day called...Heaven! So, rest easy as there is no more pain, suffering or strife. My condolences and prayers are with the family. May you find comfort, strength and peace knowing that Marrío is in his final resting place, which is called HOME. 🙏

“ I am still processing. I am sad!

Marrio was a beacon of light and a source of encouragement.

His cooking skills were out of this world. I was a person who did not like stuffing. I was converted after having Marrio's stuffing.

Marrio, you will be missed. I know you are in heaven without pain or suffering. Your spirit will be with us forever.

Big love and prayers for all family and friends processing in this moment. Do not suppress your emotions. Feel all of the emotions! God and Marrio will comfort us.

“ Marrio I have never been selfish to not wanting someone to go to their heavenly rest. I'm so heartbroken I can't even describe it. When I met you I couldn't believe how you immediately treated me like a mom. Your level of compassion and kindness I will cherish forever. I loved how creative you were and how you did everything big. You are now our angel keeping everyone in line. This is not goodbye but simply see you soon. I love you mamma Carol
