“ My Brother Martin would come n check on me when he came into town. We would talk n then I would always ask if he was hungry, he said, "Sure, what u got". His last meal was shrimp n grits with an egg n turkey bacon. He said, I don't want no turkey bacon, I want real bacon". I told him, "well u gonna eat my turkey bacon cause I don't do pig". As we talk, I had my back to him as I wash the dishes. When I was done, I turn n seen he had eaten the turkey bacon n all. He really enjoyed my cooking n I enjoyed feeding him n Dora. I am going to miss him checking up on me n me feeding him n our talk. He would like take all my worries away n always tell me don't stop praying.....

I will always love U

Your Lil Sister, Linda

“ I'm going to miss this man. He was a inspiration in my life and also father figure. There's many things that I learned from him. I know one of the funniest things I can look back on and laugh is when he had the father to boyfriend dating my daughter talk. lord knows although in my head I saw a gun in one hand this man literally walked me through it with other hand. We talked about it a couple times afterwards just have a good laugh. I'm truly going to miss this man. Rest in peace Martin Prosper Sr
