

Marvin Montgomery Ghourm

February 27, 2015

Marvin Montgomery Ghourm, a native of New Orleans, Louisiana and a resident of Stone Mountain, Georgia passed away on Friday, February 27, 2015 at the age of 56. He was preceded in death by his parents, Geraldine Mary King Ghourm and Richard Allen Ghourm and one brother Richard Allen Ghourm, Jr. Marvin's tutelage at Phyllis Wheatley Elementary, Andrew J. Bell Middle, L.E. Robouin Career Magnet School, John Fitzgerald High School, Rice University, Southern University and Tulane University shaped the mind that we would come to know as Dr. Marvin Montgomery Ghourm – The Intellectual. Dr. Ghourm worked with the Louisiana Health Institute and the National AIDS Educations and Services for Minorities Program; educated those at the Rollins School of Public Health of Emory University and empowered many at the AIDS Survival Project, Metropolitan Ryan White Planning Council, DeKalb County Board of Health and many others. As a memorial in hearts of his cherished survivors he leaves in his afterglow his, pulchritudinous sisters, Cheryl Anderson, Shelia Gabriel, Andree Holland, brothers-in-law Lionel, Michael and Romel. Devoted nieces Kentrell, Kenyatta, Shawntell; nephews Shawn, Shawndell and son in Christ Joseph. He is also survived by a host of great nieces, nephews, cousins, relatives and friends. The Homegoing Memorial will be held at the Gaza Missionary Baptist Church, 7258 Ransom Street, New Orleans, Louisiana 70126 at 11:00 a.m. Alfred Jordan, Sr., Host Pastor, Elder Lionel Catchings, Officiant. Arrangements by D. W. Rhodes Funeral Home 7411 Lonley Oak Dr. Please visit www.rhodesfun
