“ To the family, may the memories you hold in your heart bring peace and comfort.

I am truly blessed to have crossed paths with Mrs. Lewis. I admired her quick wit, her story telling and, most of all, her strong faith in God. Because of her, I am a better person. She's now at peace, looking down on you with that beautiful smile. Although I will miss her, I know she is in a better place.

*Deepest sympathies,
Marilyn Dorsey*

“ Our deepest sympathy to you Alex and your fine family. I remember Mary as a young beautiful girl from my neighborhood in Carrollton and you Alex as a beloved student and band member at BookerWashingyon High school. Also remember that yours was the first face I saw at the church for the funeral service of our beloved Beverly. We remember the delightful conversation with you and Mary at the hotel where you were employed You were a beautiful couple. We share your grief as we know how much you loved her and she loved you. We are praying for you.
Sincerely, Luticha Alcorn Perkins and Roger Perkins, Sr.

“ To my old and valued friend, Mary, who so frequently accompanied her love, Alex, when we met whether it was on business or pleasure. I know well from personal experience with Alex and Mary, that she was present and supportive of Alex as the two of them endured some of the harsh experiences of this life. I had the privilege of working with and helping Alex and Mary through some hard times and in return i received some of the largest and most valued of love, friendship and appreciation. i wish for Mary to have a special journey she so well earned and deserves as I also wish most heartfelt further a life of friendship and good will and love for my old, old,old and most treasured friend Alex.
with abiding love,
Andy Lang
