

Maxine Marie Berteaux Jackson

October 6, 2016

Maxine Marie Berteaux Jackson, age 79, died on October 6th, 2016, in Northridge, California. In December 1937 McNiel and Mildred Berteaux gave birth to Maxine. They lived in Uptown New Orleans on Clara St then Loyola St. She grew up a member of Holy Ghost Parish, St. Catherine Siena and Our Lady of Lourdes Catholic Church. Maxine attended and graduated from Xavier Prep High and Xavier University class of 57. While at Xavier University she met and married the love of her life Joseph Jackson a football, basketball, and track standout athlete. Soon after they relocated to Los Angeles, California where they both worked as teachers and enjoyed their family of eight children. Maxine was a teacher for 20 plus years at Mulholland Jr. High in the Math Department. As a popular teacher, she was extremely considerate of her students' needs; she attended numerous math workshops, classes, and conventions. She was active in the Math Department and she extended her time in other school activities including DHH (Deaf and Hard of Hearing) Department, student/teacher counseling, and an advocate for student's rights and responsibilities and the School Advisory Council. She helped guide the school towards a better overall working environment for all.

Maxine was a proud Xavier alumni who was very active and popular. But most of all she was a very church and family oriented mother who had an endless amount of friends who enjoyed her company and love of life. She enjoyed See's Candy, Black History, Jazz, sign language and anything her kids were doing.

She and Joseph, on their quest for a dozen kids, had 11 children together, including 3 who died in infancy. She is survived by her 7 children (with names that include 7 letter, begin with a D and double N's in the middle) Danneil Jackson and wife Luz Johnson (New Mexico/Texas), Dennita Rogers and husband Michael Rogers(Los Angeles, Ca); and their two children Miles and Marcus Rogers, Dunndra Jackson (Dallas, Texas), Denneth Jackson (Los Angeles, Ca), Dannton Jackson and wife Sion Jackson (New Orleans, La), Dennard Jackson and wife Leah Jackson (Los Angeles, Ca) and their two children Xzavier and Logan Jackson, and Dannvil Jackson (Norfolk, Va). She is preceded in death by her daughter Donnett Winfrey Thorton (Los Angeles, Ca. She had three children Diana Winfrey, Jenniver Winfree, and LaKisha Winfrey, and two great grandchildren Jeremy Winfrey and Leonie Cruz (Los Angeles, CA). She also has numerous aunts, uncles, cousins, and extended family members.

A funeral is scheduled for Thursday October 13 at 10am at St. Catherine of Siena Catholic Church. The reception will follow.... A visitation service will be held in New Orleans on Saturday, Oct. 15, 2016 at the Rhodes Chapel 3933 Washington Ave, 70125 from 11:00 AM until 12:00 Noon. Interment: St. Vincent Cemetery #2, 1950 Soniat St., New Orleans, LA 70115.

All are welcome to attend and celebrate Maxine's life.

The family would like to thank all for your prayers and assistance during this time. Flowers and cards can be sent to St. Catherine of Siena Catholic Church in Reseda at 18115 Sherman Way, Reseda, CA 91335. Please visit www.rhodesfuneral.com to sign the online guestbook.

Cemetery Details

St. Vincent #2 Cemetery

1950 Soniat St.
New Orleans, LA

Previous Events

Service

OCT 13. 10:00 AM (PT)

St. Catherine of Siena Catholic Church
18115 Sherman Way
Reseda, CA 91335

Visitation

OCT 15. 11:00 AM - 12:00 PM (CT)

Rhodes Funeral Home - Washington Avenue
3933 Washington Avenue
New Orleans, LA 70125
(504) 822-7162
<https://www.rhodesfuneral.com>

Tribute Wall

“ Teachers are the absolute best people on earth and Maxine is included in that beautiful group. I wish all her family peace, love, and comfort. (2 Cor. 1:3,4)

C.B. - October 21, 2016 at 04:22 PM

“ Peaceful White Lilies Basket was purchased for the family of Maxine Marie Berteaux Jackson .

October 14, 2016 at 11:34 AM