

Meauxex Martin Williams

March 10, 2024

Meauxex Martin Williams was born July 29, 1947, in New Orleans, LA. He transitioned to eternal rest on March 10, 2024 in his beloved hometown. Meauxex was a fun-loving, well-known, respected man who possessed a laugh that would electrify a room. Meauxex was a dedicated father, grandfather, great-grandfather, brother and uncle.

In his 20s, Meauxex served in the United States Army. After his honorable discharge from military service, he attended Xavier University and graduated with a degree in Education. With his degree, Meauxex obtained employment with the New Orleans Public Schools. He worked for NOPS for thirty years. During those decades, Meauxex taught at Live Oak Middle School and Albert Wicker School.

Meauxex is survived by two daughters, Agwentrice Johnson and Acendea Williams-Bailey; grandchildren Brandy Bailey, Breion Bailey and Bryant Bailey Jr; great-granddaughter Braylin Bailey; siblings Donald Williams Sr (Barbara Williams), Alma E. Hargrave, (Carlton Jr) of Calixco, CA, Bertrand A Williams III and Patricia Williams, of Inglewood, CA. A host of nieces, nephews, great-nieces and great-nephews, extended family and friends

Family and friends are invited to Meauxex's home going celebration scheduled for March 18, 2024 at Rhodes Funeral Home, 3933 Washington Ave. New Orleans, LA 70125. Visitation is 9:00am-10:00am. The funeral service will immediately follow. The funeral can be lived streamed @www.facebook.com/d.w.rhodesfuneralhome/live
