

Minnie Jewel Linyear

October 2, 2019

Minnie Jewel Linyear, 73, passed away in peace at Horizon Lawlis Family Hospice in Milwaukee, WI on October 2, 2019. Her death follows an extended illness. Minnie was born on August 1, 1946 in Americus, Georgia to the late Mr. Ernest Davis Sr. and Mrs. Sylvia Davis. After graduating from Xavier University, New Orleans in 1968 she moved to Milwaukee, WI joining St. Boniface Catholic Church and later St. Martin de Porres. She married Reginald Linyear on December 21, 1968, in Milwaukee, WI, to this union two children were born. She was a consummate human resource professional whose career spanned more than 50 years. Survivors include her husband of 50 years Reginald Linyear of Milwaukee, WI; children, Derron Linyear of Miami, FL, Deatrice Linyear-Davis (Ronnie), Snellville, GA, ; Brother, Reverend Ernest Davis Jr. (Ret.), of Albany, GA; Brother-in-Law, Keith Linyear Sr. of New Orleans, LA; Grandson, Brenden Davis, of Snellville, GA; and a host of nephews and cousins.

Committal service is scheduled for Saturday, October 19, 2019 at 1:00 pm at Mt. Olivet Cemetery and Mausoleum, 4000 Norman Mayer Ave., New Orleans, LA. Deacon Larry Calvin of Corpus Christi Catholic Church New Orleans, LA will officiate.

Further Services entrusted to DW Rhodes Funeral Home, 3933 Washington Ave., New Orleans, LA. .

Cemetery Details

Mt. Olivet Cemetery

4000 Norman Mayer Ave.
New Orleans, LA 70122

Previous Events

Graveside

OCT 19. 1:00 PM (CT)

Mt. Olivet Cemetery
4000 Norman Mayer Ave.
New Orleans, LA 70122

Tribute Wall

GH

“ Last year, Minnie and I were at XULa's Homecoming...Reggie was so sweet and let me sit next to her. We had a good time and went to Mass the follow9ing day. I'm glad I took lots of pictures. I'll forever remember my "roomie" and thank her for the many blessings she brought to my life. I love you, Minnie. Shelly

GLENDAM. HOLLEY - October 17, 2019 at 10:47 AM