

Montreal Collins Farve

February 25, 2020

Montreal Collins Farve, a devout Roman Catholic, was the daughter of the late Clarke W. Collins Sr. and Carmen S. Richards-Collins.

She was the wife of the late Harold Anthony Farve and the mother of Harold A. Farve Jr., Reynaud Michael, André Sebastian, René Gregory (deceased), and Armand Ignatius Farve. She was the sister to the late Patricia Cagnoletti, Shamus Collins, Hughette Rene, Clarke W. Collins Jr., Maxine Pauline, and step-brother Fernando Jose Collins.

Mother in law of Debra, Veronica and Jane Farve and proud grandmother of Margaret, Melina, Danielle, Lisette, Reynaud Jr., Extell and Rosalie Farve.

Montreal was educated at All Saints (Algiers), Xavier Prep (class of 1946) and the University of Wyoming in Laramie.

Montreal Farve was renowned for her service as a Registered Nurse. She served the needs of others at Flint-Goodrich Hospital, The New Orleans Port Authority, The Michoud Assembly Plant, and the U. S. Postal Service as the staff day nurse. After retiring from the post office she volunteered for two years in the Peace Corps (1993-1995). Mrs. Farve was an avid supporter and proud parishioner of St. Paul the Apostle Catholic Church for almost 70 years. “ She was the last surviving sibling of Clark and Carmen Collins. As natural as it is, it's a little sad to see the last of this Collins Clan leave this earth. But she and all her brothers and sisters will be honored and remembered in our prayers. I feel very fortunate to have been able to share time and family stories with her last year. She will be missed. Rest In Peace. Olga Cagnolatti-Degas
