

Mya Warren

February 6, 2021

On February 6, 2021, Mya was called home to her Lord and Savior. Mya had a way of touching the lives that she came into contact with. Even though her journey has ended so soon, she will be missed and never forgotten, she is now absent from the body but present with the Lord. Mya Tanisha Warren was born on March 20, 1999 to Antontia Warren and the late Michael Martin. She attended McDonogh 35 Senior High School. She accepted Christ into her life at an early age at Household of Faith in New Orleans, LA. She was a faithful employee at the Ernest N. Morial Convention Center, she later became an employee at Mercedes Benz Superdome. Mya loves her family dearly. She enjoyed telling jokes, playing video games, listening to music and interacting with others around her. She was a loving and caring person.

Mya had a soft spot for children even though she didn't have any of her own, she always expressed her love for other people's children. Let's not forget her favorite color was blue, she could usually be found in either blue or black. Mya leaves to cherish her precious memories, her mother, Antonia Warren; stepfather, Darren Williams; god sister, Jessica Thomas; grandmothers, Barbara Warren and Lucretia Terrance; grandfather, Michael Martin; aunts, Sherita Warren Walterd (Jimmy Walters), Chantrell and Takeshia Martin; uncles, Anthony Brooks, Terrell Davis and Kevin Martin; a devoted friend, Warrenisha Washington. She is also survived by a host of cousins, relatives and friends. Mya is preceded in death by her grandfather, Mr. Anthony Hickman; great grandmothers, Mrs. Dorothy Warren and Mrs. Evelyn
