“ I am very sorry to hear of Odessa's passing. While we have not been in contact for many, many years, I will never forget the kindness shown to my family by Odessa. When my step-father, Cassie Lambert was hospitalized in New Orleans, Odessa opened her heart and home to us. Rest in peace and sweet lady. The God of Peace will take care of your family. Love and Blessings, Barbara Dell Robinson, Long Beach, CA.

“ Dear cousin, you were always so beautiful in style and manner, not to mention fun to be around. Although I'm in shock that you have left us, I'm also thankful for all the wonderful memories you've left behind. Thank you most of all for your heart of gold. You were and always will be loved and missed dearly. RIP my dear precious cousin. I love you. Your cousin, Angela

“ Heaven's gained an angel ~ while earth has lost one too- time will stand still until we meet again and I rest assured knowing you'll be a guardian angel Watching closely over all those who love you so, that where left behind to grieve your loss...to say I'll miss you is an understatement~

I know my heart will never be the same and I'll think of you and miss you every single day. Rest in eternal peace dear sister and kiss momma for me?

Loving You now, always and forever. ..

“ Aunt Odessa, you will truly be missed. I love you so much and I am not ready to acknowledge that you are actually gone. I know you are celebrating with your mom and dad. (I bet it's some good cooking going on now.) I love you Auntie.
