“ *To the Lee and Miles family:
I'm very sorry that I couldn't make it.
You have my deepest condolences. Granny was very special to me and my family. My mother; the late Bernadette Jackson; look upon her as her granny also. We depended on her guidance and love. My grandmother; the late Theresa Jackson; look upon her as a very close friend. How great is God. He had those two buried right next to each other. Granny is looking down at all of her children and smiling. Tachesha and Floyd.... She is still loving y'all forevermore. Peace & luv 2 u & yours.

“  To The McDowell, Nora & Miles Families. Our heart's are heavy we could not be there to share in the Home Going Celebration for Ora Lee "Grannie". An Angel has spread her wings & gone on to Heaven's Gates. She was loved Dearly. I will miss that calming, loving, unique voice with the long telephone conversation's we used to have. I love you Grannie. May God Bless & Keep each one of you. Ms Johnnie, Tara, Charles & Porsche'.
