“ My prayers and condolences to the family. I remember It was New Year's Eve the 1st time I had the pleasure of meeting you, You welcomed me in your house and showed me Love and genericity not only that Day but any other time. It very seldom you meet people who really cares for others like you did. I remember when my mother was in the hospital on a ventilator you kept checking on me and telling me to keep my faith and pray. I will forever miss and Love you, until we meet again.
