“ There are no words that could be said that would able to fully honor the woman you were and that could convey the impact you had on the many lives you touched. We were all truly blessed by having you as a part of our lives, and while I am deeply heartbroken by not being able to attend the services due to Covid, I take comfort in knowing that the last moments we shared were great moments! You will forever be in our hearts. Until we meet again, take your rest. My deepest and sincerest condolences to the family.
