“ Dear Todd, my heartfelt condolences go out to you, your wife and the boys. The loss of a grandmother is truly painful, but the loss of one's mother is even moreso. Your mom raised a boy to become a caring and loving man, a father to his wife and family. She instilled the values that today you share with and display for your own children. I don't think a parent can give a greater gift, and she handed down that gift to you and you hand down that gift to your own children. But she was the inspiration and the source of what you now give to your children. I am truly sorry for your loss. I know Max and Ava wish they could be here for you at this time, but they are thinking of you and your family.

Your friend,
David Katner
