

Rev. Paul Larry Dunbar

March 5, 2021

Rev. Paul Larry Dunbar, 65, was summoned home on March 5, 2021 in Jackson, MS.

"Larry" was born to Percy Dunbar and the late Edna Dunbar on September 30, 1955 in Jackson, MS. He completed his general education in New Orleans, LA by graduating from J.S. Clark H.S. He went on to become an entrepreneur operating Dunbar Construction and later accepting his calling by being ordained as a minister in 2011 by the authority and order of the Founder/Elders of Original Morning Star FGBC of New Orleans, LA.

He believed in putting God first and having no regrets. Larry also believed in helping others and giving second chances, thus he established Sons of Solomon a non-profit organization designed to help recovering addicts by providing a stable living environment and finding suitable employment. He enjoyed listening to music while enjoying the company of family and friends. He is survived by his father, Percy Dunbar and siblings, Beverly Diane, Tony, Jerry, and Perry Dunbar. He is also survived by his wife, Ardis "Marie" Dunbar, and a host of kids, grandchildren, family and friends.

He is preceded in death by his mother, Edna Dunbar and brother, Micheal Dunbar.

Larry has touched many lives by sharing his powerful words of advice and inspiration.
