

Precious Lindsey

November 2, 2018

Precious Lindsey, was born in California in December of 1947, to Alice and Max Spears. As one of several children, Precious learned early how to make her impact felt. Upon finishing her Associate Degree, Precious furthered her life pursuits by moving to New Orleans, Louisiana.

It was in New Orleans, where she met Alfred Lindsey, they would marry for 20 years and to that union was born Sheldon Max Lindsey and Rochelle Alicia Lindsey. Precious dedicated herself to her family and community so much so her family began referring to her as the quiet philanthropist, as she never sought credit for those she helped.

As proud as she was of her children a special space was carved into her heart for her grandchildren who are her enduring testimony and legacy to a life well lived. Precious dedicated herself to being the best grandmother devoting her time, talents and energy to ensuring they had the best of everything and anything their heart desired.

Guided by her unwavering faith Precious knew the miracles of God. She taught her children and those around her to live by Gods word. Precious would say, "Don't cry for me when I am gone because I made peace with my God." Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted.
